I am adamantly opposed to the use of state taxpayer funds to finance what I am convinced will be a financial failure -- the Hartford Yard Goats minor league baseball stadium. Apparently the City of Hartford wants to hedge its bets on this loser as well; otherwise, this bill wouldn't have been filed.

This state is in a long-term financial crisis,. If the state helps pay for this inane project, housing a team with a suitably inane name, it will only make the future bleaker for all state residents.
